Included:

Date	No.	From	To
7 September	1 P, 5 F	Waldmark	Greifswald
9 September	9 B, 19 F	Potsdam	Neustrelitz

1. [redacted] Comment. Radeben is known as a railroad station for the Chdruf training grounds. An undetermined KVP unit probably transferred from the Weisswasser to the Chdruf training grounds. In 1952, there were indications that the Chdruf training grounds are also used occasionally by KVP.

2. [redacted] Comment. Officers candidates of the KVP entered officer school in Grossschalk were presumably transferred to the KVP Bereich Brehitz. Brehitz is served by the Jachmannsdorf railroad station.

25X1

3. [redacted] Comment. This was the retransfer to the Gethin post of elements of the 1st tank regiment of Division Halle from the Weisswasser troop training grounds.

25X1

4. [redacted] Comment. Elements of the AA regiment of Corps Sud from Torgau may have been transferred for Weisswasser at the Beilrode railroad station. Since, on the other hand, the Beilrode firing range is served by the Beilrode railroad station, it is also possible that an unidentified artillery unit, which engaged in firing practices in this area, was transferred to Weisswasser for further training.

25X1

5. [redacted] Comment. These AA units from the area of Corps Sud probably transferred to the Zingst AAA firing range which is located in the RBD Greifswald. Brehitz is unloading station for the Zingst firing range.

25X1

6. [redacted] Comment. The train presumably carried AA units which went to Zingst. The information that Neustrelitz was the receiving station is believed to be incorrect.
